Merry Christmas and Happy New Year from Purebred Rescue.

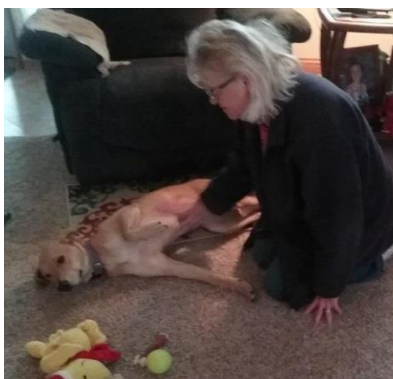

Thor - home, sweet home.

They are loving Norman!

All is well with Suzie. We're totally in love with her and can't imagine our lives without her. The only behavior that has emerged in about the last month is her need to defend our home from squirrels. She has a very deep growl and bark (it's clear she's serious about them as a menace). This is somewhat humorous in that our neighborhood is "squirrel hill" (for obvious reasons...). So, that's our gal!

Kanga is getting lots of attention.

We are so grateful to you and for all you do for these precious animals and families like ours. And the prison program is incredible! We enjoyed reading the notes from your skilled trainers. You are changing lives in so many ways, girl! THANK YOU

Reece and Ellie Mae are still looking for permanent homes.
