

PUPP Newsletter

December 2019

We had 12 adoptions in December and these dogs were trained in PUPP.

Skye looking a little worried.

Wolf looks a little suspicious at first, but sleeps in his new mom's arms.

Angel will have a little girl and dog sibling.

Dizzy and Santa

Dizzy wants to know why he has a headache.

Lyle got a new hat and scarf.

West came to our event too.

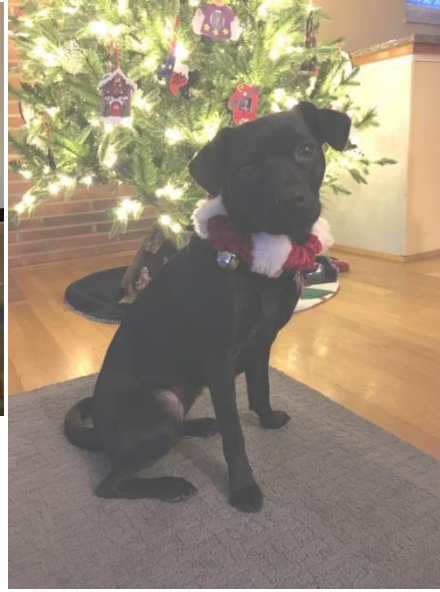

Charlotte is not quite sure what's happening.

Basil visiting with Santa at our holiday photo event.

Shiloh laying around with a few toys.

Rosie and family

Bandit and Lucy, both grads of Loci

We are having a wonderful holiday season with our Pearl (fka Mary)! We are so happy to have her! She has settled in well. She loves playing fetch and loves to snuggle! She is starting to let us know when she needs to potty. We have taught her a new trick -crawling! And she loves to play with all her toys! She is very affectionate with lots of kisses! Hope you like her Christmas picture!!

Milan was in LOCI as a puppy.

Volunteers at the holiday photo shoot.

Clyde (now Oscar) and crew

Teddy and Simon still together!

Zeke is exhausted after opening his presents.
